

3) Deputy General Manager – Projects

Qualification: B.E./B.Tech – Civil/Mech

Experience: Minimum 22-25 years in Oil & Gas, preferably in CGD.

Job Description:

- Planning and execution of all engineering projects to meet annual business plans and PNGRB targets
- To supervise designing and construction of new steel networks
- To review and approve survey reports, route maps and alignment of upcoming grids / network
- To manage project related tendering process and sanction job order to contractors and third party vendors
- To review and finalize the annual rate contract with contractors and vendors

Candidate Profile:

Candidate should be a Dynamic and proactive professionals, who has potential and expertise to deliver results and lead the team. The position calls for a seasoned professional with experience in handling Project Management, legislation related to Contracts & Construction Management with an emphasis on CGD industry and infrastructure. The execution experience of Gas Pipeline projects (Steel/PE) is a must. He should be able to lead and efficiently manage multi-disciplined team of Projects Engineers and Contractors. Incumbent is expected to deliver business performance and meet targets of stakeholders. He should be adept with latest tools and technologies, safety standards in Oil & Gas industry, an excellent communicator who should be able to effectively liaise with various Government/Statutory authorities.

Skill Set:

- Leadership skills,
- Team Player,
- Sound professional & Functional knowledge,
- Interpersonal skills,
- Excellent in Communication skills.

Salary: Minimum Rs. 20.00 lacs p.a. plus performance annual incentive as per policy.